LEARNING OBJECTIVES AND GOALS OF THE WORKSHOP:

In Alabama, specific licensure requirements for supervisors have recently changed. In this training, participants will have opportunities to meet the requirements using a variety of hands-on interactive methods and break out groups exploring Play Therapy Supervision (virtual & face to face) and other relevant standards (ACA, NBCC). The Therapeutic Powers of Play, Play Therapy Competencies, Play Therapy Best Practices, and The Paper on Touch will be included in the presentation. Although the focus of this workshop will be on providing resources for Play Therapy Supervision and other relevant standards; many interventions can be adapted for use with clients, families, and various populations.

Learning Objectives: Upon completion of this workshop, participants will be able to:

1. List 3 ethical issues of Telemental Health (Virtual) Counseling in Play Therapy Supervision and other relevant standards (ACA, NBCC).
2. Identify 3 examples of Telemental Health (Virtual) Counseling in Play Therapy Supervision
3. Discuss the relevant core agents in the Therapeutic Powers of Play for Play Therapy Supervision
4. Explain 3 ethical issues for Supervision in Play Therapy and other relevant standards (ACA, NBCC)
5. Implement 3 “hands on” activities using Play Therapy Supervision
6. Demonstrate 3 activities applying Cultural & Social Diversity in Play Therapy Supervision

ABOUT THE PRESENTER:

Dr. Celeste Neil received her PhD in Counselor Education and Supervision at the University of Alabama in 2015. She is a frequent presenter at the annual Alabama Counseling Association (ALCA) Fall Conference. Although Dr. Neil is a retired educator with 30+ years' experience, she continues to provide services for children, adolescents, and families. Dr. Neil served 8 years on the Alabama School Counselor Association (ALSCA) Board as the chair of the Recognition of Accountability, Verification and Excellence (RAVE) Awards, after receiving RAVE in 2004-2006. In 2008 her elementary school counseling program at Vestavia Hills Elementary-West was the first Alabama program that received the national award as a Recognized ASCA Model Program (RAMP). Dr. Neil served 3 years (2015-2017) on the Alabama Association for Play Therapy (AAPT) Board as President-Elect, President, and Past President. She was the first Alabama Registered Play Therapist to be a member of the national APT Leadership Academy.
